The construction of the BSP is of pivotal strategic importance as it closes the gap in the Trans-European pipeline network, in particular by closing the existing 80 km gap between the Western Oil Pipeline Network and the Southern Druzhba. BSP would result in higher transit of oil and considerably strengthening the EU-pipeline network. It will be of strategic importance for AT as it will enable the delivery of crude oil from RUS and will therefore considerably reduce ATs dependency on AWP and TAL.
